Book of Remembrance during Month of November: As stated in the Catechism, "All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven. The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification... From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God." (1031-1032) Let us pray for those who have died. A Book of Remembrance will be available near the baptismal font at St. Francis and by the stairs, at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, where you may enter names that will then be prayed for at mass during November.

Special Second Collection November 10 & 11. "Hunger Doesn't Take a Vacation"

Catholic Charities provides for those who go hungry. they serve individuals and families at emergency food pantries located at the Juan Diego Center in south Omaha and St. Martin de Porres in north Omaha each year. There is also their outreach food assistance twice a month in a pantry located at St. Joseph's rectory in Walthill serving the Omaha Indian Reservation. The pantry serves the area with the highest poverty level in the state and allows Catholic Charities to reach more than 10,000 people annually. Catholic Charities is seeking financial assistance for their emergency food pantries through a special collection next weekend Nov 10 & 11. All proceeds will go directly to the three food pantries to feed our neighbors in need.

~Seeking Truth Bible Study: Building parish life through community study of God's Word. Please join us Tues 13 Nov, 7 pm in the St. Francis parish hall. The lesson this week will be "Paul & Silas," Acts 15:36-16:40. In the vestibule of church there is a poster with a pocket with the lesson for the upcoming week for you to fill out if you are interested in joining us. All are welcome
